IV. Reports
   A. Student Trustee: Next week the Board of Trustees will be having their meeting here at CSC. If you see any board members, please thank them for their time and all that they do.
   B. CAB Report: Last night was Free Movie Night and 250 students attended. Last week Seth Hulquist, from the admissions office, presented his interest in being a CAB advisor. However, there was not enough club representation to take a vote, so the voting has been delayed until tomorrow night’s meeting. Aye commented that she has seen an increase in participation during meetings thus far.
   C. Officers:
      i. President:
         a. David Sprague was in attendance for Mannaz Berkanos Kenaz, a club for non-traditional students. This would include persons in special circumstances, 24 years of age or older, or married. Sprague said that the club would be academically and socially based. He is currently working on finding members. Schaffer offered the idea of making it a “new” tradition club instead of “non” traditional. Zitterkopf pointed out that according to the club guidelines, clubs must be open to everyone and furthermore you cannot discriminate based on age. This will be discussed more at a later meeting.
         b. Newman presented his idea for an Athlete of the Month. So far he has been in contact with computer services and Brad Smith. Once a month, each sports team would submit an athlete of their choosing and those candidates would then be put up on the website so a vote can be taken.
         c. Last spring, conferencing had come to us wanting our input on improvements we would like to see made in the Student Center and they are still wanting ideas. If you have any suggestions, please talk to Shellie Johns.

Brening moved to approve Yeutter as a Senator of Liberal Arts. Burrows seconded. Motion carried. Nelson swore Yeutter in as a new Senator of Liberal Arts.
